
WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH

The poet Rumi wrote words that apply to the open arms outreach we extend at this church.

*Come, come, whoever you are Wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving
Ours is no caravan of despair
Come, yet again come.*

Our church is a community of seekers, bound together not by a common creed but by a common commitment to seek truth, act justly and work to bring about the beloved community.

We are Unitarian Universalist.

At Sunday morning service we recite our covenant:

*Love is the spirit of this Meeting House
And service is its foundation.
This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
To seek the truth in love
And to help one another.*

At the Unitarian Universalist Meeting House, you might find yourself . . .

- attending potluck suppers, candlelight dinners, holiday parties and many other congregational celebrations;
- discussing the meaning of life or dozens of other topics in our Learning for Life programs;
- sharing your stories and spiritual journeys with a few others in our Small Group Ministry program;
- organizing or supporting relief efforts in Haiti or Afghanistan or filling needs here on the Cape;
- or dancing around a May Pole!

OUR PROGRAMS

Children: Our religious education program affirms the UU values of love, truth, helping others, and the sacredness of life.

Adults: One of our most popular outreach activities is our Thrift Shop, which enables low-income Cape residents to purchase clothing and other inexpensive goods.

OUR 7 PRINCIPLES

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association have a covenant to affirm and promote:

The inherent worth and dignity of every person;

Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;

A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;

The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;

The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
