

Are you Agnostic, Atheist, Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim or do you follow another path? All are welcomed, respected and honored here. Come and enjoy the freedom. Our church is a community of seekers bound together not by a common creed, but by a common commitment to seek truth, act justly and work to bring about the beloved community.

Membership

When you become a member of UUMH, you become part of a growing, living institution. Our community is one of offering and receiving, supporting and nurturing, exploring and growing. We encourage you to come with us on these life journeys.

Share the Journey

- ◆ At the Meeting House, our shared journey includes social justice activities. A recent exhibit on the front lawn demonstrated ways we can protect the environment.
- ◆ Members and friends have opportunities to share ideas and enjoy companionship at potluck suppers, holiday parties and other celebrations.
- ◆ The UUMH Small Ministry Groups meet regularly with leader, time and subject chosen by each group.
- ◆ The Learning for Life committee plans and promotes adult education for members and the community.
- ◆ During the summer, the UUMH meeting room is converted to a community Thrift Shop run by UUMH members and other volunteers.

Sunday morning services at 10:30 a.m.

Attend via Zoom or in person using updated guidelines on website, uumh.net

Rev. Johnson's sermons feed the spirit and mind, addressing contemporary issues and lessons from many traditions.

Music Director, Frank Toppa, offers selections from our choir, organ, piano and more to enrich the worship experience.

Our Sanctuary is wheelchair accessible via ramp or lift. Handicap parking is on Main St. side of building. General parking is available behind the Chatham Village Market.

Our 7 Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association have a covenant to affirm and promote:

- ◆ Inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- ◆ Justice, equity and compassion;
- ◆ Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- ◆ A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- ◆ The right of conscience and use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- ◆ The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- ◆ Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
