

May 8, 2023

The Program Council met via Zoom on Monday, May 8, 2023.

Ideas for UUMH being “The Place where....” *Revisions were made to the Memorandum of Understanding with the Scouts. *Plans for July 4 discussed. UUs Pete Seeger, Beatrix Potter, and Abigail Adams will be portrayed in costume; more famous UUs may be added. There will be food and music for those on their way to enjoy the Parade

* Plans for the July program and sermon with Paul Raushenbush are ongoing. He will speak on “Promise of democracy vs. religious intolerance” on July 5 from 5:30 to 6:45 PM and will preach at the Meeting House on July 23.

*Finalizing a contract with Jimmy Tingle for a September 16 evening program and a September 17 Sunday service.

*A concert and/or service with Folk artist Joe Jencks: looking toward 3rd week of November.

Council then moved on to Committee Reports.

Membership: *Six people took the recent AED course from the Fire Department. The next class will be May 26 or June 2. We could open this to the public.

Worship: *Summer schedule is in the works. Alan Rust will be in the pulpit on July 2 and Maria Silverman on August 20.