

The Program Council met via Zoom on Monday, April 11, 2022 at 3:30 P.M.

Minister's Report: Book discussion on Kristen Harper's book The Darkness Divine will continue every other Wednesday. Link is in the Eblast. She spoke of offering a discussion group on the UU Common Read Defund fear by Morris and available from UUA Bookstore.

Worship Committee: Worship and Music are splitting the cost of "One license," which gives us copyright permission for many of the music and readings that we might like to use.

Membership Committee : A poster about UUMH will be posted in the Thrift Shop. New pamphlets will also be put there (as well as upstairs) The UU video on the website and Facebook was recommended. A new banner is being planned to be hung over the portico. There are new solar lights on the Wayside Pulpit and welcoming lights left on inside the church in the evening.

Pastoral Care: Pastoral Care will be available for collations after the Memorial Services if requested.

Social Justice: There was a question if the service on Sunday on homeless youth had been recorded in full. Discussion about the feasibility of full service recordings. All are welcome to join in on beach clean-up on April 23, meeting at the causeway at Morris Island.

Old Business: Bylaws revisions have been sent to the Board of Trustees. Request for a paragraph for the Newsletter to explain each special Fund and hopefully elicit contributions. Minister's Discretionary, Jensen, Rogers, Loomis.

New Business The Thrift Shop: set up on morning of April 30, Donations begin May 2, Meeting for volunteers April 22.
