Our sermons feed the spirit and mind with contemporary issues and lessons from many traditions. Music Director Frank Toppa's selections from our choir, organ, piano, and more enrich the worship experience.

Our Sanctuary is wheelchair-accessible via ramp or lift. Handicap parking is on the Main Street side of the building. Limited parking is available across Queen Anne Road, behind Chatham Village Market and CVS.

We welcome new members, visitors, guest presenters, and special event musicians.

Sharing the arts and social concerns is an important part of life at UUMH

Develop Your Own Spiritual Beliefs

In UU congregations, we draw from:

- Wisdom and experience from all the world's religions and philosophies
- Words and deeds from prophetic people
- Humanist teachings and the findings of science
- Spiritual teachings from earth-centered traditions which respect the harmony and majesty of nature

Membership

All are welcomed, respected, and honored here. Come and enjoy the freedom. Our church is a community of seekers bound together not by a common creed, but by a common commitment to seek truth, act justly, and make a lasting impact.

Whether you're Agnostic, Atheist, Christian, Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim, or you follow another path, you are a welcome part of UU Meeting House's beloved community. When you become a member of UUMH, you become part of a vibrant community of offering and receiving, supporting and nurturing, exploring and growing.

We hope you'll come with us on these life journeys.

Share the Journey

At the Meeting House...

- Our shared journey includes social justice activities. A recent exhibit on the front lawn demonstrated ways we can protect the environment.
- Members and friends have opportunities to share ideas and enjoy companionship at potluck suppers, holiday parties, and other celebrations.
- The UUMH Small Ministry Groups meet regularly with leader, time, and subject chosen by each group.
- During the summer, the UUMH meeting room is converted to a community Thrift Shop run by Meeting House members and other volunteers.

Our Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, have a covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
